

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE BATHEASTON PARISH COUNCIL HR COMMITTEE

Establishment: The HR Committee is appointed by and solely responsible to Batheaston Parish Council. The HR Committee duties and powers are defined and agreed by Full Council who may resolve, at any time, to modify the HR Committee's responsibilities.

Membership: Full Council will elect the members and Chair of the HR Committee. It shall have at least three members. The HR Committee shall be considered quorate if three members are in attendance. Additional Councillors may be co-opted onto the HR Committee for specific time-limited tasks.

Councillors of Batheaston Parish Council not appointed to the HR Committee have the same rights as the public and therefore not permitted to attend confidential HR Committee meetings.

Frequency of meetings: The Committee shall meet at least twice a year and on an ad hoc basis when necessary. Meetings will be called for by the Chairman of the HR Committee.

Due to the nature of some issues arising, it may not always be possible to give three clear days' notice to advertise the HR Committee meetings. The Chairman will call the meeting, and where appropriate ask the Clerk to inform members. However, the Clerk might on occasion not be involved in the calling of the meeting and also be absent from the meetings.

Recording meetings: The Clerk will produce minutes of the HR Committee. In the event that the Clerk is absent from the meeting, another member of the committee will be asked to make notes and make them available to the Chairman within 48 hours of the meeting.

Minutes of meetings held in confidence shall not be made available to the general public.

Conduct of the Committee

The Committee will be mindful:

1. of the legal framework for, and good practice in, employment matters
2. of the confidential nature of employer-employee matters and that many of the items for consideration will require that the public and press be excluded by resolution of the Committee
3. of the nationally negotiated model contract, benchmarking and terms and conditions for the employment of the Clerk to the Council
4. of relevant council protocols and policies
5. The HR Committee is to act with discretion and confidentiality at all times.
